This 2014 edition of AILA’s Immigration & Nationality Act incorporates laws enacted through March 27, 2014, including:

- The Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2014 (Pub. L. No. 113-76), Div. K, Title VII, §7083 of which amends the preadoption visitation requirements of INA §101(b)(1)(F)(i) by striking the phrase “at least twenty-five years of age, who personally saw and observed the child prior to or during the adoption proceedings;” and inserting “who is at least 25 years of age, at least 1 of whom personally saw and observed the child before or during the adoption proceedings.”

- The Accuracy for Adoptees Act (Pub. L. No. 113-74), amending INA §320 by adding subsection (c) to require that a Federal Certificate of Citizenship for a child born outside of the United States reflect the child’s name and date of birth as indicated on a state court order or state vital records document issued by the child’s state of residence after the child has been adopted in that state.

- The Consolidated and Further Continuing Appropriations Act of 2013 (Pub. L. No. 113-6), Div. D, Title V, §563 of which amends INA §204(a)(1)(I) by adding a new subsection (iv) to require that petitioners for the Diversity Visa in fiscal year 2014 pay a fee of $30 for each petition filed. The funds collected by the fee are to be deposited into the U.S. Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

and more!

Legislative histories are cumulated at the end of the relevant INA section. Other editorial notes, such as sunset provisions, congressional drafting errors, and applicability information, can be found throughout the text.

All the immigration-related statutes codified in title 8 of the U.S. Code that are not part of the INA are included in Appendix A. Other immigration-related statutory provisions not in the INA are set forth in the appendices as well, including the provisions of the USA PATRIOT Act that granted certain benefits to victims of terrorism; other legislation awarding posthumous benefits to 9/11 victims; IIRIRA §§110, 309, and 641 (as most recently amended or affected by the USA PATRIOT Act); the noncodified portions of AC21 (as amended by the REAL ID Act) and the LIFE Act; the most recently amended versions of NACARA, HRIFA, and the Hmong Veterans’ Naturalization Act; the EB-5 amendments contained in the DOJ Appropriations Act; and the House Rules of Procedure and Statement of Policy for Private Immigration Bills. The book also includes a detailed, comprehensive index.

This book is updated electronically as a service to users. See www.aila.org/BookUpdates for the latest legislation or any other updates or corrections. Users are invited to submit suggestions and other comments to books@aila.org.