

PREFACE

Volume II of AILA's Immigration Regulations, current through March 13, 2020, covers the immigration-related sections of CFR Titles 6, 19, 20, 22, 28, 29, 42, and 45. These titles comprise domestic security, customs duties, employees' benefits, foreign relations, judicial administration, labor, public health, and public welfare. Newly incorporated regulations include:

- A DOS interim final rule to align DOS's public charge standards with those established in the DHS public charge rule;
- A DOS final rule establishing a rebuttable presumption that a B visa applicant who a consular officer has reason to believe will give birth during her stay in the United States is traveling for the primary purpose of obtaining United States citizenship for the child;
- A DHS and HHS final rule intended to terminate the Flores Settlement Agreement (at the time this volume went to press, implementation of this rule was blocked by a federal court injunction);
- A DOJ interim rule making organizational changes to EOIR, including delegating the Attorney General's authority to adjudicate backlogged appeals to the EOIR Director;
- A DOL final rule amending the H-2A recruitment regulations;
- A DHS and DOL final rule amending the H-2B recruitment regulations;
- A DOL interim final rule instituting a labor certification requirement as a prerequisite for approval of CW-1 petitions for nonimmigrant workers in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands;
- A DOL final rule authorizing electronic payment for H-2A program violation penalties;
- and more!

The layout of the CFR pages allows users to easily distinguish between subsections, paragraphs, clauses, etc., with nested text and more conspicuous headings at the subsection and paragraph level. The running headers remain detailed, allowing users to quickly find a needed provision. For ease of use, there is a detailed, combined, comprehensive index that includes references to both Volumes I and II of this CFR set.

As with all of AILA's primary sources, any corrections to AILA's Immigration Regulations will be available at www.aila.org/Errata. In addition, regulations published in the Federal Register that amend the CFR are posted to AILA.org and to AILALink, and any changes to the CFR are also reflected in the version of that document located on AILALink. We welcome any comments and suggestions you may have regarding any AILA publication. Please send your remarks to books@aila.org.
